

Autism's Casual For A Cause Benefits Document

Employee/Company Benefits:

Increase your company's Cause Marketing efforts

Increase your company's Brand Awareness

Tax-deductible fundraising program:

- Employer is responsible for ensuring their employees receive a receipt for their tax deductible contributions for the fundraiser. ASCF strongly encourages a Matching Program by the Employer. If the employer chooses to match the employee's contribution, the portion that the Employer contributes is tax deductible as a donation.
- If the employer elects to make a direct contribution that is NOT matching, that portion contributed will be tax deductible for the Employer as a donation.

Great way to increase your employee morale

Can be incorporated as a ongoing fundraising effort within your organization

Social Benefits:

- Will increase education about the benefits of early diagnosis and treatability of autism spectrum disorders.
- Will provide access to NO COST autism-related services for families in need.
